PLAINTIFF'S FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, [REDACTED] by and through his attorneys, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] for his First Amended Complaint hereby states as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. This is a civil action seeking damages pursuant to the Civil Rights Act of 1871, 42 U.S.C. §1983 for violations of [REDACTED]'s rights protected by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States.
2. The violations – as described below – relate to [REDACTED] wrongful arrest, imprisonment, and subsequent prosecution for armed robbery in 2008 through 2010. Defendants, all officers of the City of Chicago Police Department (“CPD”) fabricated evidence against [REDACTED] arrested him without probable cause and failed to disclose exculpatory evidence. Consequently, [REDACTED] was wrongfully detained for more than ten months prior to being acquitted at trial.

THE PARTIES

3. [REDACTED] is a resident of the City of Chicago, in Cook County, Illinois.
4. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Officer James Davis was a police officer employed by the CPD.
5. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Officer Carl Weatherspoon was a police officer employed by the CPD.
6. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants as yet-Unknown City of Chicago Employees (“John Does”) were employed by the CPD.
7. Defendants Davis and Weatherspoon and as yet-Unknown City of Chicago Employees are referred to collectively as “Defendants.”

JURISDICTION

8. This Court has original jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and § 1343 because it is a civil action arising under the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the Constitution of the United States seeking to recover damages for injury resulting from the deprivation of rights under the Civil Rights Act of 1871, 42 U.S.C. § 1983.
9. This Court may exercise supplemental jurisdiction over [REDACTED] state law claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1337(a) because these claims arise out of the same case or controversy as his federal claims.
10. Venue is proper in the Northern District of Illinois pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 because all of the relevant events occurred in Chicago, located in Cook County, Illinois, which is located in the Northern District of Illinois.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

11. On or about July 3, 2008, [REDACTED] a 78-year-old grandmother and beloved community member, was struck and killed by an SUV which was driven by a fleeing burglary suspect. There also were two accomplices in the van. [REDACTED] death (the "Homicide") occurred in the [REDACTED] in Chicago.

12. All three men who were in the SUV exited the vehicle and fled after hitting [REDACTED]. However, police caught [REDACTED] one of the passengers, shortly thereafter. He was charged with first-degree murder and residential burglary. Police continued to search for the other two suspects.

13. The Homicide was a highly publicized crime, receiving significant attention from both the print and television media, leading to community pressure to find and apprehend the additional suspects.

14. At the time of the Homicide, [REDACTED] was a friend and known associate of [REDACTED]. Accordingly, CPD detectives investigating the Homicide detained and interrogated [REDACTED] [REDACTED] about the Homicide at least once between July 3, 2008 and September 22, 2008.

15. Though [REDACTED] told the police he did not know anything about the Homicide, he later learned that officers had fabricated a statement, supposedly from him, that implicated another man, [REDACTED] in the Homicide. Police attempted to use this statement in their arrest and subsequent prosecution of [REDACTED].

16. While the investigation into the Homicide was ongoing, and after [REDACTED] had refused to cooperate with the investigating detectives, on August 17, 2008, two people were robbed while walking through Washington Park in Chicago, Illinois (the "Armed Robbery").

17. Shortly after the Armed Robbery occurred, the victims flagged down a police officer and informed that officer of the Armed Robbery. One of the assailants, [REDACTED] was arrested at the scene.

18. While in police custody, [REDACTED] confessed to the crime and told police that his accomplice was a man named [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] was a nickname and that he did not know his accomplice's real name.

19. [REDACTED] is not and never has been known as [REDACTED] and nothing about his name could reasonably lead any person to connect the name [REDACTED] to [REDACTED]. Nonetheless, officers of the CPD, including Officer Carl Weatherspoon and Officer James Davis, arrested [REDACTED] on September 22, 2008.

20. When [REDACTED] asked why he was being arrested, Officer Davis falsely stated that it was because he was a suspect in the Armed Robbery. In fact, police had arrested [REDACTED] because they believed he had information about the Homicide and thought he might feel pressure to cooperate if he was arrested for another crime – even one which he did not actually commit.

21. When [REDACTED] stated that he had not been involved in an Armed Robbery, Officer Davis responded "if it wasn't you, we'll let you go." [REDACTED] was handcuffed and taken to the Chicago Police Department Precinct at [REDACTED]

22. Upon arriving at the precinct, [REDACTED] was interrogated by five John Doe Defendants, who he believed were homicide detectives. Those detectives, immediately began questioning [REDACTED] about the Homicide – not about the Armed Robbery for which he was supposedly arrested. Two assistant state's attorneys also questioned [REDACTED] about the Homicide during this time.

23. When [REDACTED] again did not provide officers or the assistant state's attorneys with any information about the Homicide, he was taken into a lineup room. He waited in that room alone for approximately five minutes before the rest of the line-up was assembled. Upon information and belief, the victims of the Armed Robbery observed [REDACTED] standing alone in the line-up room. Both victims allegedly identified [REDACTED] as one of their assailants in that lineup, an identification which was irredeemably tainted by the victims having seen [REDACTED] standing alone in the room prior to the line-up.

24. Following the lineup, [REDACTED] was not immediately processed and charged with the Armed Robbery. Instead, he was placed in a room with the John Doe Defendants who again interrogated him about the Homicide. The John Doe Defendants told [REDACTED] that he had been identified by the victims of the Armed Robbery and asked him "is there anything you want to tell us now?" [REDACTED] understood this to be an offer from the John Doe Defendants that he would not be charged with the Armed Robbery if he provided them with information about the Homicide. Again, [REDACTED] did not provide the John Doe Defendants with any information about the Homicide.

25. [REDACTED] also learned that police had conducted a photo lineup using his picture prior to his arrest. He further learned that the photo lineup improperly suggested to the victims that he was the suspect in the crime because there was an insufficient number of pictures of other individuals who resembled their description of the suspect.

26. Only one of the victims identified [REDACTED] as one of their assailants during that photo lineup. Officers Davis and Weatherspoon and at least one John Doe Defendant were present during this photo line-up. [REDACTED] later learned that Officer Davis was responsible for selecting the misleading photos for the improper photo line-up.

27. [REDACTED] subsequently was charged with armed robbery, burglary, unlawful restraint and unlawful use of a weapon by a felon based on his alleged involvement in the Armed Robbery. He was detained from September 22, 2008 until he posted bail on November 16, 2009. During that time, he was held in Cook County Department of Corrections.

28. While [REDACTED] was detained and awaiting trial on the Armed Robbery, the State again used the Armed Robbery charge as a bargaining chip to pressure [REDACTED] into testifying about the Homicide. A female Assistant States Attorney asked [REDACTED] to testify before a grand jury regarding the Homicide. When [REDACTED] refused, the Assistant States Attorney told [REDACTED] that "the truth will set you free." [REDACTED] understood that to mean that the Armed Robbery charge would be dropped if [REDACTED] testified before the grand jury regarding the Homicide. [REDACTED] refused to testify before the grand jury.

29. In connection with the Armed Robbery charge, [REDACTED] brought a Motion to Quash Arrest and Suppress Evidence ("Motion to Quash") on or about August 2, 2009 on the basis that "the arrest of [REDACTED] was made without authority of a valid search or arrest warrant."

30. Officer Davis testified at a hearing on that Motion to Quash. Officer Davis was asked about the circumstances, if any, that provided probable cause for [REDACTED] arrest. Officer Davis's testimony was evasive and internally inconsistent: at various times during that hearing and during other pre-trial proceedings, Officer Davis gave conflicting testimony regarding the probable cause for [REDACTED]'s arrest. Officer Davis alternately testified that he arrested [REDACTED] after being tipped off by an informant in Washington Park, after personally receiving an anonymous phone call implicating [REDACTED], and after the police tip line received an anonymous tip implicating [REDACTED]. He also stated that police were searching for a suspect who was 5'8"-5'10" tall, 18-20 years old, and who had a mustache. [REDACTED] is 6'1" and was 25 years old with no facial hair at the time of the Armed Robbery.

31. Following Officer Davis' internally inconsistent testimony and failure to provide a credible explanation of the circumstances giving probable cause for [REDACTED] arrest for the Armed Robbery, the Motion to Quash was granted on May 27, 2009.

32. At [REDACTED] trial, the State's Attorney did not call Officer Davis as a witness and Officer Davis did not testify at [REDACTED] trial.

33. [REDACTED] – who had confessed to the Armed Robbery – testified at [REDACTED] trial. He testified that [REDACTED] was not his accomplice and was not involved in the Armed Robbery.

34. [REDACTED] was found not guilty on December 13, 2010.

35. [REDACTED] arrest for the Armed Robbery was not his first experience with Officers Davis and Weatherspoon. Both officers regularly patrolled the Washington Park neighborhood where [REDACTED] grew up and both officers had repeatedly harassed [REDACTED] on the street.

When the police were desperate for information about the high-profile Homicide, Officers Davis and Weatherspoon and the John Doe Defendants conspired to arrest and detain [REDACTED] without probable cause and subsequently interrogate him in an attempt to extract information from him about the Homicide. As Officer Davis' inconsistent testimony shows, there was no informant, no confidential tip, and no other indication that [REDACTED] was involved in the Armed Robbery. To the contrary, [REDACTED] provided Defendants with the name of his one and only accomplice, [REDACTED] and that accomplice was not [REDACTED]. Rather than pursuing this lead, which could have led police to the actual perpetrator, Defendants fabricated evidence and otherwise conspired to maliciously prosecute [REDACTED] in hopes of obtaining information regarding the Homicide and in violation of clearly established law.

36. When [REDACTED] could not provide them information about the Homicide, Defendants failed to disclose exculpatory evidence, including that there was no informant, that they had no probable cause to arrest [REDACTED] and that the photo and in-person lineups were improper and prejudicial, and otherwise conspired to ensure he was charged with and prosecuted for the Armed Robbery, despite knowing that he was not involved. They did this both to punish him for his lack of cooperation and/or to extort information from him about the hit and run.

37. As a result of Defendants' actions, [REDACTED] was incarcerated for 14 months. He suffered emotional pain and suffering as a result of being removed from his family and friends, particularly his young son, [REDACTED]. His imprisonment also triggered post-traumatic stress disorder resulting from a previous gunshot wound.

38. Accordingly, [REDACTED] has suffered damages, including but not limited to physical harm and mental suffering, all proximately caused by Defendants' misconduct.

Count I – 42 U.S.C. § 1983

Due Process – Right to a Fair Trial

39. Each paragraph of this Complaint is incorporated as if restated fully herein.

40. As described above, all of the Defendants, acting individually, jointly and/or in conspiracy, deprived [REDACTED] of his constitutional right to due process and to a fair trial under the Fifth Amendment.

41. In the manner described more fully above, Defendants deliberately withheld and suppressed exculpatory evidence, in violation of Brady v. Maryland, fabricated evidence and manipulated both photo and in-person lineups, thereby causing the wrongful prosecution of [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

42. Had Defendants properly disclosed exculpatory evidence, the State's Attorney would not have charged and/or prosecuted [REDACTED] for the Armed Robbery. Accordingly, the Defendants' misconduct directly resulted in the unjust arrest, indictment and continuing wrongful incarceration of [REDACTED], thereby denying him his constitutional right to a fair trial in violation of the Due Process Clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

43. As a result of this violation of his constitutional right to a fair trial, [REDACTED] suffered injuries, including but not limited to loss of liberty, physical harm, severe emotional distress and anguish and financial damages.

44. This misconduct described above was objectively unreasonable and was undertaken intentionally, with malice and willful indifference to [REDACTED] clearly established constitutional rights.

Count II – 42 U.S.C. § 1983

Failure to Intervene

45. Each paragraph of the Complaint is incorporated as if restated fully herein.

46. In the manner described above, during the constitutional violations described herein, one or more of the Defendants stood by without intervening to prevent the violation of [REDACTED] constitutional rights, even though each of them had the opportunity to do so.

47. As a result of the Defendants' failure to intervene to prevent the violation of [REDACTED] constitutional rights, [REDACTED] suffered physical harm, severe emotional distress and anguish, and financial damages. These Defendants had a reasonable opportunity to prevent this harm, but failed to do so.

48. The misconduct described above was objectively unreasonable and was undertaken intentionally and with willful indifference to [REDACTED] constitutional rights.

Count III – 42 U.S.C. § 1983

Conspiracy to Deprive Plaintiff of His Constitutional Rights

49. Each paragraph of this Complaint is incorporated as if restated fully herein.

50. After the Armed Robbery, the Defendants, acting within the scope of their employment and under the color of law, agreed amongst themselves and with other individuals, to act in concert in order to deprive [REDACTED] of his constitutional rights, including his rights to due process and a fair trial.

51. Additionally, before and after [REDACTED] indictment, the Defendants further conspired to deprive [REDACTED] of exculpatory information to which he was lawfully entitled and which would have led to either his not being charged or his more timely exoneration.

52. In this manner, the Defendants, acting in concert with other unknown co-conspirators, conspired by concerted action to accomplish an unlawful purpose by unlawful means.

53. In furtherance of the conspiracy, each of the co-conspirators engaged in and facilitated numerous overt acts, including but not limited to those set forth above – fabricating evidence and withholding exculpatory evidence – and was an otherwise willful participant in joint activity.

54. As a direct and proximate result of the illicit prior agreement and actions in furtherance of the conspiracy referenced above, [REDACTED] rights were violated and he suffered injuries including but not limited to loss of liberty, physical harm and emotional distress.

55. The misconduct described in this Count was objectively unreasonable and was undertaken intentionally, with malice, willfulness and deliberate indifference to [REDACTED] rights.

Count IV -- 42 U.S.C. § 1983

Malicious Prosecution¹

56. Each paragraph of this Complaint is incorporated as if restated fully herein.

57. The Defendants, despite knowing that probable cause did not exist to arrest and prosecute [REDACTED] for the Armed Robbery, acted individually, jointly, and/or in concert and in conspiracy, to cause [REDACTED] to be arrested and prosecuted for that crime, thereby violating [REDACTED] right pursuant to the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution to be free from unreasonable searches and seizures and to due process. The Defendants made statements to prosecutors with the intent of exerting influence and to institute and continue unjust judicial proceedings.

58. Specifically, the Defendants were aware that, as described more fully above, no true or reliable evidence implicated [REDACTED] in the Armed Robbery and all inculpatory evidence was coerced or fabricated. Furthermore, the Defendants intentionally misrepresented to prosecutors and the grand jury facts that supported probable cause against [REDACTED] (despite knowing the falsity of those facts), and failed to investigate evidence which could have led to the actual perpetrator. Defendants performed the above-described acts deliberately, with malice and with reckless disregard for [REDACTED] rights.

59. On December 14, 2010, [REDACTED] was found not guilty. At that point, he had spent 14 months in prison awaiting trial.

60. As a direct and proximate result of this misconduct, [REDACTED] sustained, and continues to sustain, injuries as set forth above, including pain and suffering.

Count V -- State Law Claim

Malicious Prosecution

61. Each paragraph of this Complaint is incorporated as if restated fully herein.

62. The Defendants despite knowing that probable cause did not exist to arrest and prosecute [REDACTED] for the Armed Robbery, acted individually, jointly, and/or in concert and in conspiracy, to cause [REDACTED] to be arrested and prosecuted for that crime. The Defendants made statements to prosecutors with the intent of exerting influence and to institute and continue unjust judicial proceedings.

63. Specifically, the Defendants were aware that, as described more fully above, no true or reliable evidence implicated [REDACTED] in the Armed Robbery and all inculpatory evidence was coerced or fabricated. Furthermore, the Defendants intentionally misrepresented to prosecutors and the grand jury facts that supported probable cause against [REDACTED] (despite knowing the falsity of those facts), and failed to investigate evidence which could have led to the actual perpetrator. Defendants performed the above-described acts deliberately, with malice and with reckless disregard for [REDACTED] rights.

64. On December 14, 2010, [REDACTED] was found not guilty. At that point, he had spent 14 months in prison awaiting trial.

65. As a direct and proximate result of this misconduct, [REDACTED] sustained, and continues to sustain, injuries as set forth above, including pain and suffering.

Count VI – State Law Claim

Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress

66. Each paragraph of this Complaint is incorporated as if restated herein.
67. The acts and conduct of the Defendants as forth above were extreme and outrageous. The Defendants' actions were rooted in an abuse of power or authority, and they were undertaken with intent to cause, or were in reckless disregard of the probability that their conduct would cause, severe emotional distress to [REDACTED] as more fully alleged above.
68. As a direct and proximate result of the Defendants' actions, [REDACTED] suffered and continues to suffer injuries as set forth above, including severe emotional distress and pain and suffering.

Count VII -- State Law Claim

Civil Conspiracy

69. Each paragraph of this Complaint is incorporated as if restated fully herein.
70. As described more fully in the preceding paragraphs, the Defendants, acting in concert with other known and unknown co-conspirators, agreed and conspired by concerted action to accomplish an unlawful purpose by unlawful means.
71. In furtherance of the conspiracy, the Defendants committed overt acts and were otherwise willful participants in joint activity including but not limited to the malicious prosecution of [REDACTED] and the intentional infliction of emotional distress upon him.
72. The misconduct described in this Count was undertaken intentionally, with malice, willfulness and reckless indifference to the rights of others.

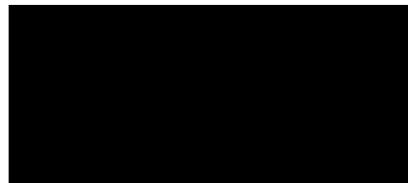

73. As a direct and proximate result of the Defendants' conspiracy, [REDACTED] suffered damages, including severe emotional distress and anguish, and pain and suffering, as is more fully alleged above.

74. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, [REDACTED] respectfully requests that this Court enter judgment in his favor and against Defendants, Officer James Davis, Officer Carl Weatherspoon and as-yet unknown City of Chicago employees, awarding compensatory damages, attorneys' fees and costs against each Defendant, and punitive damages against each of the individual Defendants, as well as any other relief this Court deems appropriate.

JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff, [REDACTED], hereby demands a trial by jury pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 38(b) on all issues so triable.

Respectfully submitted,

Department of Police * City of Chicago
3510 South Michigan Avenue * Chicago, Illinois 60653
